

Planners' Comments

Dare we hope that all who braved the elements derived some enjoyment from the experience. The predominantly open nature of the terrain offered limited opportunity for varied route choice and courses were designed, therefore, to offer challenging direct routes utilising the contours and comprehensive range of natural forest vegetation as much as possible. Course lengths were increased to reflect the fast runnable nature of the terrain and, despite the conditions, it was pleasing to see that winning times were generally within an acceptable margin of those recommended.

The area provides natural grazing for unusually large numbers of animals and possibly some competitors came across pigs scouring the oak woodlands for acorns. It was disappointing to find that gates into the Inclosure were left open at times. Animals that stray into Inclosures become distressed and require much coaxing out. Please ensure gates are shut behind you.

Our special thanks go in particular to John Horton for assistance with preparation of a detailed base map, Roger Pleasant for drawing his first major map (a mammoth task with so much intricate dot screening), Mike Rice for arranging the heat sealing of map units, and John Warren/Chris Tween for their welcome guidance and prompt assistance at all times.

We hope that you will be able to enjoy the natural beauty of the area more fully on your next visit.

Richard Jeans. Trevor Summers.

Controllers' Comments

We hope that despite the atrocious conditions you enjoyed the event. Richard Jeans and Trevor Summers had put in immense and prolonged efforts on your behalf as did the whole of the club on a day to remember.

The policy of joint planning and controlling seems to us to have considerable merit both in the exchange of ideas and the sharing of the physical work involved - and representing the interests of both sexes.

In a winter event the importance of providing for emergencies was amply justified as a result of shortage of daylight and bad weather. The 'Safety Bearing' meant that one lost junior arrived very late but safe, whilst a team of experienced orienteers effectively combed the southern half of the map area in near darkness before 5 pm.

Please ensure that in bad weather you make your control cards proof against the elements. It gave the results team a real headache to decipher soaked and torn cards.

John Warren. Cris Tween.
